Introduction

The DDA Watch website, was launched by community advocacy organization ACT NOW! in June of 2023. It is an impartial and non-partisan information resource for the public, officials and academics.

This report is the second annual report that analyses the content available to the public on the DDA Watch website and provides recommendations based on those findings. The first annual report was published in July 2024 and can be accessed here - <https://www.ddawatch.org/resources>.

The website provides access to information on Papua New Guinea's ninety-six individual District Development Authorities (DDAs).

The website is completely politically neutral and is not associated with any political party, any elected official or any intending candidate.

The ninety-six DDAs are represented equally and the information about them is presented without any bias, favor or discrimination.

What is a District Development Authority?

District Development Authorities (DDA) were established by Parliament in 2014 with the aim to improve local service infrastructure delivery. DDA's are responsible for the spending of District Service Improvement Program (DSIP) fund and District Infrastructure Fund (DIP). There are also Service Improvement Program (SIP) grants that are paid to the Provincial and Local Level government as shown in the diagram annually.

Each year, the DDAs are allocated funds to improve local service delivery and infrastructure. In 2023, each DDA was allocated a total of K20 million in DSIP and DIP funding in the National Budget.

DSIP and DIP funds are distributed to the DDA by the Department of Finance. The DSIP Funds are used by the DDA as follows:

- Infrastructure support services (30% / K3 million)
- Health support services (20% / K2 million)
- Education support services (20% / K2 million)
- Law and Justice services (10% / K1 million)
- Economic support services (10% / K1 million)
- Administration (10% / K1 million)

Why DDA Watch?

Despite substantial funding through the DDA system, there has been a noticeable decline in critical services such as health and education across the country. This alarming trend prompted the creation of the DDA Watch website.

The website is designed to encourage public participation in the democratic process and social auditing.

The DDA Watch Scoring System: 70 points

The DDA Watch website includes a rating score for each District Development Authority (DDA) and a ranking. The rating score assesses the performance of each DDA against a number of fixed criteria as listed below and also incorporates a public satisfaction element.

The rating score and ranking does NOT reflect a comprehensive evaluation of the performance and effectiveness of a DDA or the quality of the services in a particular District. The score and ranking are merely an indicator of how a DDA rates against a set list of transparency and good governance indicators.

The maximum rating score for each DDA is 100 points.

Up to 70 points are awarded based on the public availability of key documents from the DDA and contact information:

- Current five-year development plan - 10 points
- Current annual budget - 10 points
- Acquittal report (previous year) - 10 points
- DIRD Inspection report (max 2 years old) - 10 points
- Audit report (max 3 years old) - 10 points
- Functioning email address - 10 points
- Postal address - 5 points
- Contact phone number - 5 points

All DDAs are encouraged to submit their plans, budgets, acquittals, inspection reports and audits and to provide their contact details for inclusion on the website - contact form.

Public satisfaction score: 30 points

Up to 30 points are awarded to each DDA according to their average public satisfaction score.

Any member of the public can submit their satisfaction score for a DDA via this website, but they must first register by providing a name and mobile telephone number.

The users name and phone details are held on a secure server and are not released to any other person or used for any other purpose than in relation to the DDA Watch website.

Satisfaction scores submitted by members of the public are recorded as 30 (very good), 20 (good), 15 (okay), 10 (bad) or 0 (very bad).

One person cannot submit a rating for more than one DDA and can only have one vote recorded.

The satisfaction score used in the displayed DDA rating is the average of all the scores submitted by the public (total score divided by number of submissions).

Where no public satisfaction scores have been submitted for a particular DDA, the DDA is awarded 15 as its starting score.

The displayed rating score for each DDA is updated automatically and in real time as more documents are added to the DDA profile page and as more members of the public submit satisfaction scores.

The ranking list displayed on the Home Page is also updated automatically and in real time as the rating scores are updated.

Moderating Comments

Users of the DDA Watch website are encouraged to upload comments about the performance of individual District Development Authorities for display on the relevant DDA page.

All user submitted comments are reviewed by an ACT NOW staff member before they are approved for publication.

Any comments that include sexist, racist or homophobic language or hate speech, or language that is rude, obscene, offensive, bullying, intolerant or intended to scare or intimidate, and any comments containing personal details may be edited or deleted.

This report covers the one-year period from June 2023 to June 2024, analyzing the performance of DDAs as documented on the DDA Watch website.

There are four parts in this report.

1. Availability of Key District Documents
2. District Contact Information
3. Public Interaction with the Website
4. Analysis of top performing DDA on DDA Watch

Part 1: District Key Documents

District Key Documents are essential records that provide transparency and accountability for the activities and financial management of District Development Authorities (DDAs). These documents are;

1. 5-Year Development Plan (2022-2027)
2. Acquittal Report
3. Audit Report
4. Annual Budget
5. Inspection Report

Each document is worth 10 points on the DDA Watch scoring system, contributing to a maximum of 50 points.

1. 5-YEAR DEVELOPMENT PLAN ANALYSIS

DDA's are responsible for producing a district five-year development plan, a strategic document that outlines the goals, initiatives, and projects that a district aims to achieve over a five-year period. This plan is essential for guiding the district's development efforts and ensuring that resources are allocated effectively to improve local services and infrastructure. A district plan aims to ensure district's development efforts are well-coordinated, transparent, and aligned with the needs and priorities of the local community.

Plans are supposed to cover the five-year period from 2022 to 2027. We are now two-thirds of the way through that planning and implementation cycle.

KEY FINDINGS:

As at June 2025:

1. Thirty-seven (37) DDA's have launched a District Development Plan. This is an increase of 16 plans since June 2024.
2. There are still fifty-nine (59) DDAs that have yet to publish a district plan - more than 60% of the total
3. Only 9 of the thirty-seven (37) district development plans are publicly available. An increase of 2 plans since June 2024.

Highlands Region

There are thirty-six (36) DDAs across 7 provinces in the Highlands region.

- Only thirteen (13) have a 5-year district development plan. This is an increase of 4 plans since June 2024.

3. AUDIT REPORT

An audit is a thorough examination of the financial records and operations of a District Development Authority (DDA) to ensure accuracy, compliance with regulations, and proper use of funds.

All audits are conducted by the Auditor General's Office and involve reviewing the DDA's financial statements, transactions, and records. The purpose of the audit is to verify that the funds allocated to the district, such as those from the District Service Improvement Program (DSIP) and the District Infrastructure Program (DIP), are being used effectively and transparently.

KEY FINDINGS:

- There are zero (0) records of any financial audit reports for a District Development Authority being published between June 2024 and June 2025.
- This is a repetition of the same situation in 2023-24, when again zero audit reports were published

The Auditor General's Office (AGO) has reported having conducted only six audits of Service Improvement Program (SIP) funds for the period 2017-25. In total there are 492 institutions that receive SIP funds, twenty-two (22) provinces, ninety-six (96) districts and three hundred and seventy-four (374) local level governments. It is not known which were the six institutions that were audited or for what periods.

The local Level government service improvement fund (LLGSIP) has phased out in 2015.

One of the main reasons for the lack of audit reports is that the Office of the Auditor General lacks the capacity to do the audits.

4. DISTRICT ANNUAL BUDGET

A district annual budget is a financial plan that outlines the expected income and expenditure to guide the districts activities and priorities over a one-year period. This budget is crucial for managing the district's resources and ensuring that funds are allocated effectively to various projects and services.

KEY FINDINGS:

Submission of district annual budget recorded by DDA Watch as of June 2025 shows;

- Only six out of ninety-six DDAs have announced an annual budget for their district for the year 2025.
- The other 94% of DDAs in the country have not announced and district budget for the 2025 financial year
- This mirrors a similar situation in 2024, when only 8 DDAs announced their annual budget.

DDA	Province	Region
Sohe	Northern	Southern
Ijivitari	Northern	Southern

Overall Summary: District Annual Budget

Figure 8 shows a summary of districts in each region that have announced their 2025 district budgets.

1. Highlands Region: No annual budget from all thirty-six (36) districts
2. Momase Region: Only 2 DDAs out of 26 districts have announced an annual budget.
3. Islands Region. Only 1 DDA out of the 13 districts announced an annual budget
4. Southern Region: Only 3 DDAs out of 21 districts have announced an annual budget

5. INSPECTION REPORT

An inspection report is a document that provides a detailed assessment of projects and services funded by the District Service Improvement Program (DSIP) and the District Infrastructure Program (DIP). These reports are produced by the Department of Implementation and Rural Development (DIRD) through its Monitoring Unit, which has regional offices to conduct physical inspections and verify the expenditure of funds. The DIRD consolidates these inspection reports into quarterly and annual management reports, which are then submitted to the Central Agencies Coordinating Committee and other government agencies

KEY FINDINGS:

- As at June 2025, no inspection reports were publicly available on the use of District Service and Infrastructure Improvement Program Projects for any year since the programs were introduced.

ACT NOW! has written on numerous occasions to DIRD and visited their offices multiple times but has not received a response to its requests for access to any Inspection Reports.

According to the DSIP, PSIP, LLGSIP, and WSIP financial administrative guidelines, DIRD is responsible for reviewing Service Improvement Program (SIP) reports, monitoring project acquittals, and conducting physical inspections and verifications to ensure that the projects funded actually exist and represent value for money.

Media reports have highlighted the ongoing long standing failures in the effectiveness of DIRD's monitoring and inspection efforts. For example, it is reported in 2016, DIRD's project monitoring and inspection team visited only three (3) provinces and sixteen (16) districts, showing a lack of wide spread oversight.

District Key Document Overall Analysis

As at June 2025;

- Thirty-seven (37) DDA's have launched a 2023-2027 Five-year development plan, but only nine (9) are publicly available.
- Seventy-two (72) acquittal reports were submitted to Department of Implementation and Rural Development (DIRD) as at June 2025, none of which are public. Only Talasea DDA made public summary of acquittal report which can be accessed on DDA Watch.
- There are no inspection reports available.
- There are no audit reports available.

Conclusion

The analysis of District Development Authorities (DDAs) according to the information recorded on the DDA Watch website highlights significant gaps in transparency, accountability, and public engagement across Papua New Guinea's ninety-six (96) districts.

There has been only very limited improvement in the number of publicly available documents over the past twelve-months compared to the situation in June 2023 and government agencies such as DIRD, AGO, OC and the Department of Finance continue to fail in fulfilling their critical governance oversight roles.

Key Findings:

1. Limited Availability of Key Documents:
 - Only 9 DDAs have a publicly available 2022-2027 Five-Year Development Plan
 - Only 6 DDAs have announced their annual budget for 2025
 - No public records exist for district Inspection Reports or Audit Reports.
 - Only one DDA has a summary of its district acquittal report publicly available.
2. Gaps in Contact Information:
 - 92 DDAs have named CEOs, leaving 4 unidentified.
 - Active email addresses are available for just 7 DDAs.
 - Active phone numbers exist for just 20 DDAs
 - Only 6 DDAs have an active website.
3. Public Engagement on DDA Watch:
 - 109 total votes were recorded for 53 districts, meaning 43 districts received no public interaction.
4. News Coverage Disparities:
 - 1,909 DDA news stories were recorded for June 2023 - June 2025.
 - More than 70% of districts (sixty-seven, 67 DDAs) had fewer than 20 articles recorded,
 - Talasea district had the highest media coverage, with 120 recorded articles.

Recommendations

- Citizen Engagement: We urge citizens to actively engage with their DDAs, demanding transparency, accountability, and adherence to good governance practices.
- District Planning: All DDAs must publish a 5-year development plan and make that plan available to the public
- DSIP Accountability: DDAs must promptly release detailed DSIP and DIP acquittal reports to restore public trust.

- Audit Expansion: Increase funding to the Auditor-General's Office (AGO) to enable it to conduct audits for all ninety-six (96) districts.
- Budget, acquittals and district plans: All Districts should publish their budgets, acquittals and district plans ensuring openness and fiscal responsibility. The lack of publicly available financial and planning documents raises concerns about transparency and governance.
- Funding Restrictions: The Department of Finance should stop distribution of further DSIP (District Services Improvement Program) and DIP (District Infrastructure Program) funds to districts with no plans, acquittals or contact details.
- Leadership Code Enforcement: The Ombudsman Commission (OC) should act under the Leadership Code against CEOs and DDA Board chairs who fail to publish plans, acquittals or contact details.
- Leadership Action: All DDAs should publish the names of their CEO, and contact phone, email and postal addresses. Improving communication channels is critical; ensuring that each DDA has a designated CEO, active email, phone number, and an official Postal address or website will strengthen public access to information.
- Enhance Monitoring and Accountability: Allocate additional funding to the Department of Implementation and Rural Development (DIRD) to strengthen monitoring and reporting frameworks. This will ensure comprehensive tracking and transparency of DDA activities, with a specific focus on inspection and audit reports.

Overall, while some districts have demonstrated limited attempts at public engagement, all DDAs still lack transparency and accountability in their operations. Strengthening information access, public engagement, and enforcement of governance frameworks are key to improving service delivery and ensuring that development funds are effectively utilized.
